January 3, 2023

Dear Stewards and Friends of St. Sophia:

I want to begin by wishing all of you a blessed new year! We all know that with the new year, all of us make resolutions of all different types. I would like to propose a resolution for all of us to make. That resolution is to read the Bible.

Fr. Josiah, an Orthodox Priest in Southern California posted this in a letter to his congregation: “Once I was visiting with an esteemed father who shared with me that over the course of a year, over 100 of his parishioners had joined him in a common project: reading the Holy Scriptures from beginning to end over the course of a single year.” How incredible is that! Over 100 people from one Orthodox Christian Community reading the entirety of God’s WORD!

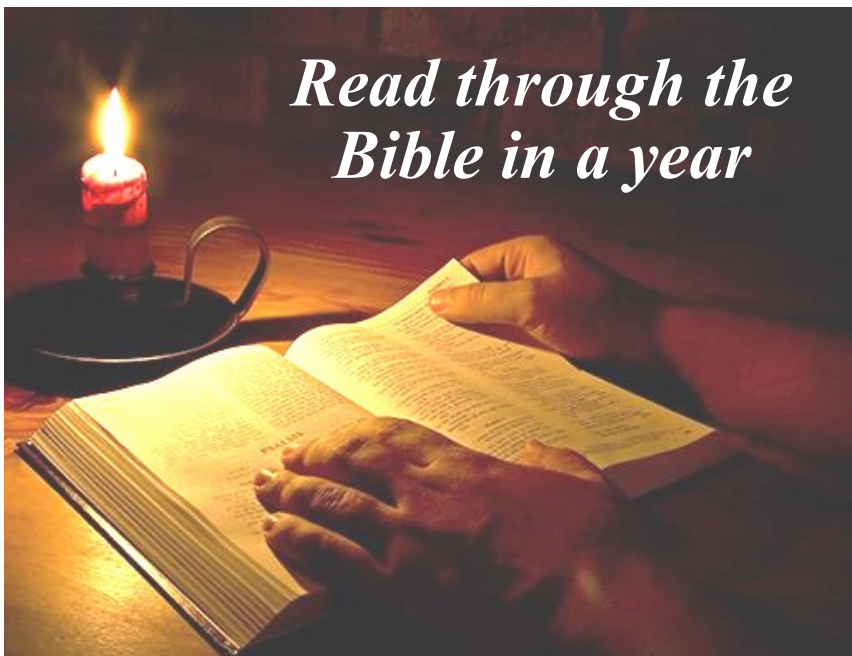

My friends, I am asking you to commit to a holy project, a holy Resolution—to read with me a little portion of Holy Scripture each day according to the attached calendar of readings. I know that all of us are busy. Make the time! You have nothing to lose...only to gain!

Please accept my invitation to launch out on this holy project. I thank Fr. Josiah and his parish for sharing this calendar which started on January 1st.

In Christ,

Fr. Peter

ORTHODOX BIBLE READING PLAN

Read Through the Bible in a Year

This bible reading plan is designed to be used with a Bible where the Old Testament is based on the Septuagint, the Greek translation that was quoted by Jesus and the Apostles and also used by all the early fathers. It contains roughly 25 percent more content than modern translations because it includes the so-called Deuterocanonical books.

Each day consists of four readings. The first reading is a passage from the Old Testament books of history, wisdom, or the prophets. Passages two and three are from the Psalms and Proverbs, respectively. Passage four is from the New Testament. Psalms and Proverbs are read twice through the year. Doing all four readings will take 15 to 20 minutes each day.
